Peter Grandich Named to Leadership Board

Red Bank, NJ: Peter Grandich has been named to the Leadership Board of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes of New Jersey (FCA-NJ). Grandich, of Freehold, is the founder of Trinity Financial Sports & Entertainment Management Co., LLC, Wall Township.

“We are excited to announce that Peter Grandich has joined our FCA Leadership Board,” said Area Director Harry Flaherty. “Peter has been an outstanding supporter of FCA over the past 10 years and we are thrilled to have him back serving in this capacity.”

Flaherty, who played professional football with the Dallas Cowboys, Tampa Bay bandits, Philadelphia Eagles and Baltimore Stars, explained that FCA is the largest Christian sports organization in America. Since 1954, the organization has been challenging coaches and athletes on the professional, college, high school, junior high and youth levels to use the powerful medium of athletics to impact the world for Jesus Christ. Through organized “huddles” in area schools, the NJ chapter serves roughly 150 college, university, high schools and middle school campuses around the state.

Mr. Grandich said, “I’m honored to serve on the board of FCA again. I’ve known Harry Flaherty for over a decade and he’s truly a Christian soldier. Now more than ever, the darkness that has covered the public school systems needs the light of Christ.”
